The Plastic Problem
Thursday, March 5 at 7 PM
the Wyckoff Public Library, 200 Woodland Ave

By 2050 there will be more plastic than fish in the oceans. PBS NewsHour takes a closer look at this now ubiquitous material, how it’s impacting the world and ways we can break our plastic addiction.

Smog of the Sea
Monday, March 9 at 7 PM
the Wyckoff Public Library, 200 Woodland Ave

The Smog of the Sea, a documentary from filmmaker Ian Cheney that chronicles a research expedition through the Sargasso Sea. Marine scientist Marcus Eriksen invited an unusual crew to help him study the sea: renowned surfers Keith & Dan Malloy, musician JackJohnson, spearfisher KimiWerner, and bodysurfer Mark Cunningham become citizen scientists on a mission to assess the fate of plastics in the world’s oceans.

From Flint: Voices of a Poisoned City
Friday, March 20 at 7 PM
the Oakland Public Library, 2 Municipal Plaza

From Flint goes beyond the news headlines to spotlight the impact of the devastating water contamination crisis on the people of Flint, Michigan. The film highlights the stories of residents who were personally injured, along with the work of local organizations and individuals that rallied to support them.

Microtopia
Thursday, March 26 at 7 PM
the Wyckoff Public Library, 200 Woodland Ave

Microtopia explores how architects, artists and ordinary problem-solvers are pushing the limits to find answers to their dreams of portability, flexibility - and of creating independence from the grid. Microtopia deals with contemporary urgent ideas that are addressed, and solved, in very surprising ways.
